
OUR SERVICES, YOUR VITAMINS

CONSULTANCY IN SCIENCE COMMUNICATION

Do you want to disseminate the results of your research project?

We can help you disseminate your research and reach a wider audience beyond academia.

Do you need to write the communication and dissemination section in your project application for funding, but don't have the time or background to do so?

We partner with your research project and take care of the communication and dissemination section in the project.

Do you wish to implement a science communication strategy within your project or research centre?

We sit down with you, listen to your ideas and needs, design a tailor-made strategy and help you implement it.

TRAINING IN SCIENCE COMMUNICATION

Do you want to become a science communicator who bridges scientific knowledge and society, making complex ideas accessible to all?

We offer ready-to-go or fully customised training courses that help researchers and professionals communicate complex ideas clearly, accurately and engagingly, across different formats and audiences. Become a science communicator ready to simplify, clarify, and inspire. Levels: beginner | intermediate | advanced

CONSULTANCY IN SOCIAL SCIENCES PROJECTS

Do you need to integrate social science insight into your research?

We bring expertise in qualitative and quantitative methods, stakeholder engagement, and impact-driven design to strengthen the relevance and effectiveness of your research.

RESEARCH PROJECTS MANAGEMENT

Do you want support in managing your research project smoothly and efficiently?

From design to delivery, we manage research workflows, coordinate teams, monitor timelines and ensure compliance—so you can focus on the science.

SCIENTIFIC REVIEW IN SOCIAL SCIENCES

Do you need a trusted expert to provide insightful feedback on your manuscript or proposal?

With over 15 years of experience in academic research and publication, we offer precise and constructive scientific review, ensuring your work is clear, sound, and publication-ready.

IF YOU HAVE THE WILL, WE WILL FIND A WAY!
